COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

The College of Pharmacy at Our Lady of Fatima University (OLFU) is a premier institution committed to producing ethical, skilled, and industry-ready pharmacy professionals. Established in 2000, it has grown into one of the leading pharmacy schools in the Philippines, consistently delivering board passers and topnotchers who contribute significantly to the national and global workforce.

OLFU provides affordable yet high-quality pharmacy education, with its FAAP-accredited BS Pharmacy program designed to meet industry demands. With lower tuition fees than competitors, students benefit from an industry-responsive curriculum that ensures strong licensure exam performance.

The College has consistently surpassed the national passing rate for the past five years, with the Valenzuela City, Antipolo City, and Pampanga campuses earning Top Performing School awards from the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC).

The Valenzuela City Campus was also recognized as a Center of Development by the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) in 2015. Meanwhile, OLFU Antipolo City has maintained an above-national-average passing rate for 13 consecutive years and was awarded Top Performing School by PRC five years in a row (2019–2024). There was no Licensure Examination in 2020*

With strong industry partnerships and extensive hands-on training, OLFU pharmacy graduates gain real-world experience in various fields, including hospital, community, manufacturing, regulatory, research, academia, and government pharmacy. These connections translate to a high employability rate, solidifying OLFU's reputation as one of the country's top producers of pharmacy professionals.
